One of the things we can do is find paintings and interesting places from each island. These are two types of collections that exist in many islands of the game. In this case, we will tell you where to find all the paintings of snake islands and places of interest, in K-15, K-16. All points are divided between the three islands that make up this small archipelago. The paintings and locations of Snake Island have 10 paintings on the rocks, distributed as we have said between the three islands. #1 - Painting of flowers (on the west island, in the clumps of the northwest coast).#2 - Painting of fire (on the west island, in the central opening, north of the trees on the east side).#3 - Snake painting (on the central island, in the opening of trees to the northwest).#4 - Painting Battletoads (on the central island, on the central island, in the opening of trees to the northwest).#4 - Painting Battletoads (on the central island, at the southeastern end of the north coast coast).#5 - Painting of the sun (on the central island, in a cave on the southeast part of the southwest coast).#6 - Lizard painting (on the central island, on the southeast part of the southwest coast).#6 - Lizard painting (on the central island, on a tree slightly to the northeast of the previous painting).#7 - Dripping glass painting (on the central island, in the opening in the garden of the southeast region).#8 - Painting of the snake god (on the central island, in the southeast. This is a sn pretty big rock that watches over the southeast end coast, you should be able to see it relatively easily from below if you look northwest).#9 - Paintings of pirates fighting with snakes (on the eastern island, at the central opening of the island, at the northwestern end, near the mountains).#10 - Painting turtles (on the eastern island, in the middle of the island, in the east-southeast, Places of Interest and Locations There are 7 interesting places to be found on Snake Island, so it won't take long. #1 - Stone lighthouse (on the west island, at the northeast end, near the edge of the cliff).#2 - Lonely beach (on the west island, on the southeast coast).#3 - Gunpowder Cave (on the central island, in the garden to the northwest).#4 - Stone snake (on the central island, Go northeast of the southwest coast coast and you should see it in an elevated area).#5 - Skull warning (on the central island, near the southeast cliff).#6 - Neck with a tattered flag (on the central island, on the west bank clearing to the east).#7 - Palm trees (on the eastern island, at the western end of the central clearing. Does anyone know how to solve a puzzle on a walking snake island; In the narrow hallway guarded by the head of the snake something hidden here, read me and it will appear. I've been reading this map all over this fucking island for almost an hour and found nothing. @abovejupiter697 said it was part but more than two stone next to each other really. It took me a long time to find that one myself. The central @knifeflife find it, but do nothing @abovejupiter697 Sometimes it can be awkward just keep trying to hug it and try it from a different angle. Remember you should also hold the map in the air, with the RTnor mouse button :) @sillyfoal574589 I think it's the west side of the main island (leading from the coast), near the entrance to the gunpowder tunnel, 2 snake heads painted on a rock in the 'top' section It's Also worth remembering you have to hold a map using RT or RMB @knifeflife what's the next puzzle step? Where do you raise your fire high when say the snake god faces the island? Start from the northwest coast of the main island, then see SE. Stand in the middle of those rocks, lift your lantern up. @charger1627 said in snake island puzzle, please help: Where do you raise your fire high when it says the snake god is facing the island? There is a statue of a snake with a snake basket on it that reads Tartan and has the number 8 on it. Raise your lantern next to the statue. Hi, a narrow path with a large snake symbol on the rocks opposite each other is on the west side of the big island. Hold the lights high here. The narrow passageway to the gunpowder tunnel is the west side of the island, playing shanty here, just outside the tunnel. It takes some slow walking outside the entrance to allow. Found many there, 2 barrels, rare sugar, chest and cage as well as puzzle gifts. @charger1627 thought it was a snake statue in the temple as well, but it wasn't. There's a painting on a big red snake stone surrounded by people who worship it, that's the snake god you're looking for. (The central island I believe in, but not sure when I stumble around the island over and over again... XD) I walked around the island more than 10 times before I stumbled upon it, much easier to see during the day. Edit: Once you see it you'll facepalm yourself. I I do... It's so big... XD @mrgim67686 Aye who is just some worthless old junk left to appease the snake god. The story goes that there was an eccentric Scotsman who visited the Sea After spending many, many days there slowly driven mad by his crew, he wondered why there were not many species of animals on the islands. Pig & chickens but no predators. This makes him think, what we become ideal predators for the islands. Snake!! yes, he wants snakes!!! He strongly believes that the snake has been there & is doing everything in his power to make his crazy vision a reality. Unfortunately his vision came true & we are now blocked at almost every turn by the pesky creatures! @Tartansnake-8 That's how it goes isn't it?? No, of course not, it's our Deckhand down under the Tartansnake 8s Easter egg. Given to him to go & on & on & on about snakes in the game ..... oh & to be kind of helpful, sometimes :) @logansdatoo – And what a wonderful addition they are! @abovejupiter697 one of the 2 outer islands has a road leading to the beach with snake head statues on both sides of the road.sometimes you have to be in the right place for things to work. It's on the east side of the main island. Paintings on both sides of the rocks. This isn't a tunnel. @abovejupiter697 s on the main island on the east side. This isn't a tunnel. You don't still see me hoping. Everything you need to know about the Sea of Thieves animal collection cruise. The location of sea of thieves chickens, pigs and snakes can vary from game to game, but knowing where to go to track them will be crucial if you want to create any kind of headway with Merchant Alliance Voyages. Animals can be found on almost every island in the world's Sea of Thieves, but the problem is that they will often appear on one in one play session, but not there in the next play session. Here in this page, we will detail the best locations of chickens, pigs and snakes to track them up, as well as details of exactly how to find and catch snakes, chickens and pigs and anything else you need to know. The community has once again done some great work in gathering various player experiences in finding animals, as it seems that their spawning locations often change from one game example to the next. In other words, fit into one game and you'll find a Chicken Isle full of poultry, but fit into another and won't be there, although the name sounds obvious. With that in mind, to start here is a list of all the places you can find chickens, according to this excellent document created by redditior bridgermetz. If you're looking for a specific island location, our Sea of Thieves island map guide can help you find and identify them quickly. It is obtained in two ways which are both, thankfully, quite simple. The first is to talk to the Merchant Alliance trader who gave you the Voyage chicken gatherer, once you start saying Voyage – it should really be underway, by which we mean choosing on your ship and currently active, otherwise you won't be able to get a cage. The second is to get lucky and find a chicken coop randomly while exploring the island – it's good enough to stock up on chickens so you can complete Voyages en masse at a later date. Once you have the cage, you should actually run after the chicken while holding it - when you chase one, commands will appear for you to hold the button and, if successful, you will take the chicken. To get chickens out of your cage, which you may need to do if you take the wrong one by accident for example, unfortunately there is only one solution: you need to shoot or drown it! Just like chickens, pigs can be found on different islands, with different islands spawning pigs in various examples of games. Here are all the locations reported by the public to potentially own pigs so far: Again, if you're looking for a specific island location, our Sea of Thieves island map guide can help you find and identify them quickly. Collect the pigsty from the vendors who gave you voyages to catch them in the first place, and then chase them and scoop them up as you approach. Where they differ is 'maintenance', as it is. Pigs need to eat approximately every sixty seconds - you will know when they need a bite when they make some quite unsettling noises and begin to slump in their cages - which is done by holding bananas in front of them and interacting when the request to feed them appears. Bring healthy banana stocks with you and on board when you're going to hunt pigs, then – there's nothing worse than sailing all the way back to the post only to find little Sir Onksalot has been starving for some time along the way! Finally, as you progress a little further with the Merchant Alliance you will begin to be asked to collect snakes. As do animals Which island appears is largely different from one play session to the next, but this is where the community found it so far.Again remember that, you are looking for a specific island location, our Sea Island map guides can help you find and identify them quickly. To pick it up safely, you need another player to play music to hypnotize, or just generally relax enough for you to get close. Otherwise, the noose will strike, chipping away at your health gradually but still especially over time. Preparation? Read what to do in Sea of Thieves and take part in the Maiden Voyage tutorial, which teaches you the essentials of sailing and ship fighting. It is also useful for beginners to know how to survive fighting with skeletons and kraken. Elsewhere we have advice on how to get easy gold and doubloon, a complete skeleton fort and The Shroudbreaker, taking part in fishing on island maps of the Sea of Thieves and Sea of Thieves. Merchant Alliance Voyages is, like all Sea of Thieves' Voyages, quite simple. One way or another, they will ask you to go and get something and bring it back within a certain time limit. Usually it is some combination of animals, such as the Golden Snake and the Black Snake, say, but sometimes it is a slightly riskier task to collect an explosive Gunpowder Barrel. The best way to find this is from an un occupied Forts - a militaristic island that doesn't house any creatures but plays home to elaborate Skeleton Fort attacks that appear randomly over time. However, the main thing to know is that you need to get this stuff as quickly as possible - usually you have a few days in the game to do it - and bring it back to the right place. It's easy to forget, but Merchant Alliance Voyages is always a specific Outpost you have to pick up this stuff. You can't just hand it over at any vendor like with other factions of Voyages, so remember to check as you go and plan the fastest route.
